Sister Communities Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (SCCADA) is an education, information and referral agency serving Anderson, Cherokee, Henderson, Rains, Smith, Van Zandt, and Wood counties. Founded in 1984 as a private non-profit organization, SCCADA is governed by a board of Directors comprised of concerned citizens. SCCADA is funded primarily by the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (TCADA), United Way, Smith County, the City of Tyler, area School Districts, and Corporate / Individual donations.
